THE PROCESS

1. CONTACT US

Start by reaching out to schedule a call with one of our FLITE account managers for a personalized intake session. During this call, we'll dive into your needs, including gear requirements, your club's culture, design inspiration, preferred colors, and logos. This conversation helps us understand your vision so we can bring it to life.

2. DESIGN PROCESS

Once we have your input, your FLITE account manager will create a detailed design brief and pass it along to our creative team. From there, our designers will craft unique gear concepts tailored to your specifications. You'll have the opportunity to review and approve the designs, ensuring every detail aligns with your expectations.

3. PRODUCTION & FULFILLMENT

After the designs are finalized, you'll submit order details, including quantities by size and customization requirements. Your custom gear then moves into production, where our team ensures quality and precision. Orders are typically completed and delivered within 4-5 weeks from order submission.

TEAM SHOPS

At FLITE, we make the process of outfitting your team seamless and stress-free.

We build custom team shops hosted on our website that allow your athletes and supporters to conveniently shop and purchase uniforms and training gear in one place.

We handle the customer service process, allowing you to focus on what truly matters—your team.

From packaging and shipping to managing customer inquiries, we take care of everything.

Partner with us for a professional solution to all your uniform needs.
